

SIMMONS & SIMMONS ART COLLECTION

Monday 9th October 2017

6.00-8.00pm

CityPoint, 1 Ropemaker Street, London EC2Y 9SS

Check in with Reception on the ground floor and you will then be directed to the meeting point (meet at 5.50pm)

Simmons & Simmons began collecting contemporary art twenty years ago with the intention of supporting artists at the beginning of their careers. They initially bought significant works of emerging young British artists such as Tracey Emin, Damien Hirst, Gary Hume and Michael Landy, and the collection expanded to now represent the work of many contemporary artists. Stuart Evans, who assembled the collection, will talk about its history followed by a tour of the art on show.
